Backward, turn backward, oh, Time, in your flight Make me a child again, just for to-night! Mother, come back from the echoless shore, Take me again to your heart as of yore— hiss from my forehead the furrows of care, Smooth the few silver threads out of my hair Over my slumbers your loving watch keep-Rock me to sleep, mother-rock me to sleep!

Backward, flow backward, oh, tide of years! I am so weary of toils and of tears—
Toil without recompense—tears all in vain—
Take them and give me my childhood again!
I have grown weary of dust and decay. Weary of flinging my soul-wealth away— Weary of sowing for others to reap; Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

Tired of the hollow, the base, the untrue;
Mother, oh, mother, my beart calls for you!
Many a summer the grass has grown green,
Blossomed and faded—our faces between—
Yet with strong yearning and passionate por
Long I to-night for your presence again;
Come from the silence so long and so deep—
Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to aleep!

Over my heart, in days that are flown,
No love like mother-love ever has shown—
No other worship abides and endures,
Faithful, unselfish, and patient like yours.
None like a mother can charm away pain
From the sick soul and world-weary brain;
Slumber's soft calm o'er my heavy lids creep
Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

Come, let your brown hair just lighted with gold Fall on your shoulders again as of old—
Let it fall over my forehead to-night.
Shielding my faint eyes away from the light—
For with its sunny-edged shadows once more,
Hap'ly will throng the sweet visions of yore,
Lovingly, sofily, its bright billows sweep—
Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

Mother, dear mother! the years have been long Since I has hushed to your lullaby song— Sing, then, and unto my soul it shall seem Womanhood's years have been but a dream; Clasp to your arms in a loving embrace.
With your light lashes just sweeping my fac
Never hereafter to wake or to weep—
Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

Major Jack Downing on Secession --- He Gives his Opinion About Nullification, and Illus-trates it with a Incid example. We produce for the benefit of the pres ent day and generation, the following let-ter on nullification, from the celebrated pen of Major Jack Downing.

WASHINGTON CITY, Jan, 17. 1833. To the editor of the Portland Courier, in the Mariners' Church Building, second atory, Eastern end, Fore street, away down East, in the State of Maine.

MY KIND AND DEAR OLD FRIEND :- The President's Message to Congress makes cracking work here. Mr. Calboun shows his teeth like a lion. Mr. McDuffie is cool as a cowcumber, though they say, he's got a terrible tempest inside of him, that he'l let out before long. For my part I think the President's Message is about right. I was setting with the President in the east room last night, chatting about one thing and another, and the President says he, Major Downing, have you read my message that I sent to Congress to-day? I told him I hadn't. Well, says he, I should like to have you read it and give me your opinion on it. So he handed it to me and I sot down and read it through.

And when I got through, now, says I Gineral, I'll tell you just what I think of this ere bus ness. When I was a youngster some of us Downingville boys used to go down to Sebago pond every spring and hire out a month or two rafting logs across the pond. And one time I heard cousin araim, and Joel, and Bill Johnson, and two or three others, had each a whapping big log to carry across the pond. It was rather a windy day and the waves kept the logs bobbing up and down pretty consider-ably bad; so we agreed to bring 'em along side and and lash 'em together and drive some tholepies in the outermost logs and row 'em over together. We went along two or three miles pretty well. But by and by Bill Johnson began to complain. He was always an uneasy barum scarum sort of a chap. Always thought everybody else had an easier time than be had, and when he was a boy, always used to be complaining that the other boys had more but-ter on their bread than he had. Well, Bill was rowing on the leeward side, and he begun to fret and said his side went the hardest, and wouldn't give us any peace until one of us changed sides with him.

Well Bill hadn't rowed but a little ways on the windward side before he begun to fret again, and declared that side went harder than tother and he would't touch to row on that side any longer. 'We told him he had his choice and he shouldn't keep changing so. But he only fretted the more and began to get mad. At last he declared if we didn t change with bim in five minutes, he'd cut the lashings an ! take his log and paddle off alone. And before we had hardly time to turn around, he declared the five minutes were out, and up hatchet and cut the lashings, and away went Bill on his own log, bobbing and rolling about, and dancing like a monkey to try to keep on the upper side. The rest of us scrabbled to as well as we could, and fastened our logs together again, though we had tuff match for it, the wind blew so hard. Bill hadn't gone but a little ways when his log began to role more and more and in he went splash, head and ears. He came up puffing and blowing, and got hold of the log and tried to climb up on to it, but the more be tried the more the log rolled; and finding it would be gone goose with him pretty soon if he stayed there, he begun to sing out like a loon for us to come and take him. We asked him which side he would row if we would take his log into the raft again. O, says Bill, I'll row on either side or on both sides if you want me to, if you'll only come and help me before I sink.

But, said the President, I hope you didn't help the foolish rascal out till be got pretty well soaked. He got soaked enough before we got to him says I, for he was jest ready to sink for the last time, and our logs came pesky near getting scattered, and if they had, we should all have gone to to the bottom together. And now Gineral, this is just what I think; if you let South Carolina cut the lashings you'll see such a log railing in this country as you never see yet. The old Gineral started up and marched across the floor like a boy .-Says he, Major Downing, she shant cut the lashings while my name is Andrew Jack-son. Tell Sargeant Joel to have his com-pany sleep on their arms every night. I told him they should be ready at a moment's warning.

I wish you would jest give cousing Ephraim up to Augusta, a jog to know why he dont write to me and let me know how

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous comments. the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous;
their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it.
To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise.
Such a medicine we supply in

AYER'S Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only Scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Empty Properties and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Environments. Purpless, Purple Rose, or Envirence, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumons, Tetter and SALT RHEUN, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DIS-EASES, DROPSY, DYSPERSIA, DEBILITY, and, EASE, DEDIST, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITTATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

AYER'S Ague Cure,

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Agne, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originat-ing in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of Miasmatic Countries.

the Malaria of Miasmatic Countries.

We are enabled here to offer the community a remedy which, while it cures the above complaints with certainty, is still perfectly harmless in any quantity. Such a remedy is invaluable in districts where these afflicting disorders prevail. This "Cure" expels the miasmatic poison of Fever And Ague from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in bilious districts, where Fever and Ague prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Yever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritaiton, among which are

They had never had the disease.

Yever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the minsmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gont, Heundecke, Ellindness, Toothacke, Earacke, Catarrh, Asthma, Valpitation, Painful Affection of the Spicea, Hysterics, Pain in the Boreck, Colic, Paralysis and Devangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cun" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be exercted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

PHARMACY. DR. ROBACK'S Scandinavian Remedies

WHEN DR. ROBACK, the celebrated Swedish Physician, introduced his Blood Purifier and Blood Pills in the United States, he set forth in pials language their curative properties. This was years ago. The task of recommending them has since been fakes and fastands. Enlightenen men whose character for sound judgment and philosophy gives their opinious weight in the community, men who observe, reflect, and make "assurance doubly sur." before they decide—are everywhere approving and urging the use of these wonderful Preparations. All who confide in the wisdom and honesty of this class, or who chose to investigate for themselves are now of one mind on the simportant subject.
